Moſcow, Auguſt 30, O. S.

ON the 27th Inſtant died in a Monaſtery near this City, Ewdokia Foedorowna Lapuckin, firſt Wife to Peter the Great, who was ſeparated from his Czariſh Majeſty, and confined in a Priſon for ſeveral Years: During which Impriſonment ſhe loſt her only Son the Czarowitz. When her Grandſon Peter the Second aſcended the Throne, ſhe was taken out of Priſon, and had no ſooner got a little over her paſt Misfortunes, but had the Grief to ſee her Grand-Daughter the Princeſs Natalia depart this Life, who was ſoon followed by her Grandſon Peter the Second.

Bruſſels, Oct. 3, N. S. The firſt Inſtant being the Anniverſary of his Imperial Majeſty's Birth-day, the ſame was celebrated at the Archdutcheſs's Court with great Splendour and Magnificence. It was declared that Day, that his Imperial Majeſty had named the Count de Salm for the Biſhoprick of Tournay. The Count de Flemming, Captain in the King of Pruſſia's Service, is come hither, to ask Leave of the Government to raiſe ſome Recruits in this Country for the Regiment of his Pruſſian Majeſty's Great Grenadiers, and it is believed it will be granted him.

Hague, Oct. 5, N. S. Count Golofkin, Ambaſſadour from the Czarina, having delivered his Credential Letters to the Preſident of the Aſſembly of the States General, he has been acknowledged in that Quality by their High Mightineſſes, and on the 2d Inſtant was complimented by the Preſident on that Occaſion. The ſame Day Admiral Perez, Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperour of Morocco, had a Conference with the Deputies of the States. On the 1ſt Inſtant his Excellency the Count de Sinzendorff gave a magnificent Entertainment to the Duke of Lorrain, and to a great Number of Perſons of Diſtinction, on account of the Anniverſary of his Imperial Majeſty's Birth-day. On the 2d that Duke dined with the Marqueſs de Fenelon, Ambaſſadour from the French King. Yeſterday about Noon the Duke of Lorrain went from hence, to dine at a Country Houſe which Count Sinzendorf has hired in the Neighbourhood of Leiden, and to lodge that Night at Leiden, where he propoſes to ſtay
